

Do it Best Donates 26 bicycles to Hawthorne Community Center

Members of Do it Best celebrated the corporation's 70th anniversary at its spring meeting in Indianapolis by assembling bicycles and donating 26 of them to children served by Hawthorne Community Center.

"We are ecstatic to accept this gift on behalf of children in the Hawthorne area," said Diane Arnold, executive director. Hawthorne representatives surprised the Do it Best members by taking the children to the Indianapolis Convention Center to express their thanks in person.

"It was a happy day for everyone," said Arnold

Do it Best Corp. is based in Fort Wayne and is a member-owned hardware, lumber and building materials buying cooperative for 3,800 retail locations throughout the U.S. and 54 other countries.

Hawthorne Community Center has served the people of the near west side for more than 90 years.

