

Umbaugh Names Three New Principals

INDIANAPOLIS, FEBRUARY 2015 --- Matt Eckerle, Belvia Gray and Eric Walsh have been promoted to principals at Umbaugh, a financial advisory firm to local governments.

Eckerle, a graduate of Indiana University, joined Umbaugh as a financial analyst in 2005 and concentrates on tax impact financing, economic development projects and road and park impact fees.

Gray, a graduate of Butler University with a MPA from the School of Public and Environmental Affairs at Indiana University, also joined Umbaugh in 2005. Her practice includes bond issues for schools and municipalities, budgeting and legislative analysis.

Walsh is a graduate of Goshen College and a licensed CPA. He joined Umbaugh in 2006 and is primarily involved in Management Advisory Services, including training, budget services, financial management reports, tax exempt bond issuance and advanced services involving financial accounting and reporting.

With offices in Indianapolis, Mishawaka and Lansing, Mich., Umbaugh is one of the largest and most active independent financial advisors to governmental units in the Midwest.